Description

• Very imposing tryptic designed Regency Landscape Mirror in really excellent condition with a lovely balance between the original gilt and refreshed 24 carat gilding of the leaf mouldings, etc which really give it a wow factor • The quality of the mouldings is exceptional – this was created by a fine maker • The middle and 'rhs' glass panels appear to be original with foxing as shown – these could be replaced if desired but as a 'collector' I have not done this particularly as the central mirror has a moulded bevelled edged glass which I have never seen on a mirror of this age (only started to see cut bevelled mirrors from the late 19thC) • Could work beautifully in a modern interior. • A gem • Delivery £90 uk ex. Scotland
