Description

Regency Painted Pine Washstand Table * English Regency Period * Pine with original decoratively painted finish with faux marble top * Single Pine lined drawer with delicate hand dovetail and turned knobs * Delicate design upstand with scrolled ends and narrow gallery shelf * Shaped Lower Tier would have held basin and jug * 4 prettily shaped turned legs * H: 98cm (38.6") W: 85cm (33.5") D: 43cm (16.9") * Additional dimensions - 74cm to table top This is a delightful English Regency pine washstand in original paint decoration with faux marble top. The raised gallery, with shelf, is beautifully shaped and complimented by the choice of blue hand painted curly line décor. It has a single drawer to the front and sits on simple turned and decorated legs, the paint décor being used to cleverly emphasise the height of the table. There is a lower tier shaped shelf which would originally have stored the wash bowl and jug. It is a lovely example and in very good condition with expected age related wear in places. This is such a versatile piece and could make a compact good work station or dressing table. Whilst this is a surprisingly lightweight tabl...
