Description

Fabulous Edwardian miniature satin wood display cabinet in great untouched condition with great colouring and amazing patina. It inlaid shaped cornice sits above a glass door and two glazed sides decorated with delicate ebony stringing supported on small bracket feet. The interior is fabric lined with a triangle pattern and has a shaped glass shelf. This miniature display cabinet was either a very high quality apprentice piece or perhaps a 'trade sample'. This is a charming little cabinet perfect for displaying your treasured trinkets.
