

SA1032290

Georgian Thomason Double Action Corkscrew c1810

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1032290*Date of manufacture: 1800

Dimensions

Height = 18.5 cm (7.3")

Description

Technical Description An early 19th century Georgian Thomason Double Action Corkscrew which was first patented in 1802 by Sir Edward Thomason. Turned wooded handle with horsehair brush containing a unique mechanism with both male and female threads which allows for one continuous action which pierces and also removes the cork. Copper and Brass base with royal crest. Date & Origin England, c1810 Condition Excellent, all parts in full easy working order, the horsehair intact and relatively clean. The wood is unchipped and uncracked condition. Dimensions Length: 18.5cm

Internal Ref: 2023082603

Seller Details

Exhibit Antiques

Glasgow Scotland United Kingdom

Tel: 01501 228 282

International Tel: +44 1501 228 282

