Description

This is an antique pier cabinet. An English, walnut and boxwood inlaid display cupboard, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820. An attractive cabinet, presenting beautifully with fine colour. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select walnut shows fine grain interest and deep caramel hues. Accentuated with superb boxwood stringing throughout. Front fascia accentuated with superb scrolled foliate marquetry. Adorned with ormolu mounts to each corner, framing the cabinet door. Bright glazed door dressed with ormolu lock escutcheon – in working order, key present. The fully lined interior resplendent in the original velvet upholstery. Offers a single shelf with graduated height above and below. Standing upon four bracket feet with a delightful serpentine apron. This is a superb antique pier cabinet, desirably presented and ideal for showcasing treasured items. Solids joints and construction. Delivered ready to display.
