Description

This is an antique desktop rotary bookcase. An English, walnut revolving book shelf with Aesthetic period overtones, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Charmingly decorative rotary book rest, ideal for the desktop or chair-side. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in very good order. Select walnut stocks show fine grain interest and rich caramel hues. Delightful overtones of the Aesthetic period to the fretwork decor. Arranged as eight equal shelves across two tiers, accepting small novel sized books. Rotating smoothly upon a square base for ease of access to your chosen title. This is a fascinating antique desktop rotary bookcase, with fine craftsmanship and ideally sized for popular vintage and antique novels. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
