Description

Well this is a rarity! An antique solid sterling silver butt or peg marker modelled as a powder flask. It is clearly hallmarked on the neck for Chester 1912, with the maker's mark of Grey & Co. The powder flask-shaped body has a suspension loop attached to the base. The ingenious spring-loaded mechanism in the neck releases one ball at a time, which is presumably why the suspension loop is on the bottom rather than closer to the neck. The flask has then to be reverted before releasing another ball. Sadly, there are only three balls, numbered 1, 6 and 8 - shame! It is priced accordingly. There are a few small dents to the body, which is, unusually, unengraved. Dimensions: Silver weight: 19g Length: 8cm Width: 3.5cm Depth: 1cm Complimentary gift wrapping is available on request. Post and packaging are free within the UK. Overseas buyers please e-mail for postage costs and please note: Import duties, taxes, and charges are not included in the item price or shipping cost.
