Description

A charming early 19th-century wine table in well-figured solid oak. The circular top is finely grained and gently chamfered, set over a turned stem with baluster detailing and supported by three elegant cabriole legs terminating in pad feet. A simple but beautifully proportioned piece that would serve well beside a fireside chair or as a refined accent in a quiet corner or hallway. The restrained design and golden colour give it enduring appeal in both period and contemporary settings. Presented in very good antique condition with an attractive rich, warm tone and beautiful aged surface wear. Minor traces of old, inactive worm, treated and long since stable. Structurally all sound and ready to place. English, circa 1820. H: 67 W: 44 D: 44 cm Top diameter: 32.5 cm
