Description

Late Victorian mahogany free standing pedestal desk circa 1890. The desk is a good size being 5ft wide, good quality solid mahogany construction. It has 9 drawers to the front and a cupboard to the back of each pedestal. All the drawers are solid in joint and slide nice and smooth as they should. The top has an unusual leather insert lay out and displays a wonderful flame mahogany. It comes in three parts for transport and for ease of setting up in your office or home. It has a brass label for Powell & Powell, a listed cabinet maker, upholster and Auctioneers. The desk is in good clean condition, free from any major damage and no woodworm. We can arrange delivery throughout the UK and are able to ship worldwide, please enquire for our competitive prices.
