Description

A tall antique Edwardian music cabinet in Mahogany dating from circa 1905. In richly figured mahogany, it features a single panelled door which opens to reveal three removable shelves, which allow sheet music/papers to be stored. The door locks and comes with a key. It has a raised gallery to the top and stands on square tapered legs. A really stylish and useful piece that would make a great music cabinet, collectors chest, hall unit or filing cabinet.
