Description

Fred Lawson 1888-1968. A landscape painter. Fred was born at Yeadon, near Leeds. He studied at Dewsbury and Leeds School of Art. On a visit to Wensleydale in 1910 with George Graham, they decided to settle there and shared a studio for several years. Fred married the young Muriel Metcalfe of Leyburn in 1933, who was also a painter. Exhibited at the RA, RI and at numerous exhibitions of local artists. Contributed illustrations to the Dalesman from the first issue and for ten years wrote a monthly feature for the magazine. Illustrated several books, including a number by Dorothy Una Ratcliffe. Travelled in France and Holland, but most of his work depicts the scenery and life of Wensleydale. One of the most fluent and spontaneous watercolourists of his time, he was particularly adept at capturing autumnal tints. A book titled 'A Painters' Life' about the artist has recently been produced by John Duncalfe ...
