Description

Italian Elegance: Pair of Late 19th Century Walnut and Parcel Gilt Side Cabinets exquisite pair of late 19th-century side cabinets. Crafted from rich Italian walnut and adorned with meticulous parcel gilt details, these cabinets are a symphony of artistry and refinement. The stepped and moulded sarcophagus tops of these cabinets are masterfully carved with a bellflower arcade and acanthus leaf motif. This distinctive design exudes the timeless allure of Italian craftsmanship, capturing the essence of the late 19th century. Each cabinet's frieze boasts a single drawer, intricately carved with a cartouche escutcheon and trailing foliage. The carving adds depth and character to the design, creating a visual narrative that speaks to the artistry of the era. The bevel-glazed doors open to reveal a carefully lined and mirrored interior. This thoughtful design not only enhances the visual appeal but also provides a reflective backdrop for whatever treasures you choose to display within. Flanking the glazed doors are carved male and female figure pilasters, a signature of Italian craftsmanship. These figures, rendered with meticulous detail, add a touch of classical elegance...
