Description

19thc. oak small dresser base. This 19thc. oak small dresser base was made in the last half of the 1800's. The dresser base is of a rare small size as it is only 103cms wide! Therefore, it can fit in most places around your home. The cabinetmaker selected a wonderful elm plank that is full of character for the top and then constructed the rest of the dresser in oak. The 2 drawers are inlaid and fitted the brass plate handles. It stands on long cabriole legs that end on pad feet. Owning this oak dresser is bound to give you so much pleasure and you won't be able to resist running your hand along the wonderful surface, as it is so tactile. 103cms wide 40 1/2ins 37cms deep 14 3/4ins 87cms high 34ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible.
