Description

An attractive antique Edwardian oak bureau. The antique oak bureau has a fall front that opens to reveal a brown leather writing surface, with fitted interior, consisting of twelve pigeon holes and a central cupboard which opens to reveal a fitted shelf. The antique mahogany bureau has an arrangement of two short drawers over two graduating long drawers, each with decorated brass swan neck handles and detailed brass escutcheon. The bureau is raised on bracket feet. Item Ref; M-5002 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 105cm / Width - 85.5cm / Depth - 49cm / Surface Height - 75cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related scratches to the front and top. There is a lot of wear to the writing surface (pictured), however, this does not affect the overall integrity of the product. A wonderful example of an antique Edwardian oak bureau.
