Description

This impressive and intriguing vintage pine cupboard, originating from a historic post office, features two doors at the top and bottom. It includes a fold-down work/writing surface with three drawers and three pigeon holes inside. Maintaining excellent condition for its age (Circa: 1920), it is currently in its natural, stripped bare wood state. It can be purchased as is for £750, or you can choose the waxed option for £847. When open: the work surface measures 30.5" high, sticks out a total of 34" from the back. Please note: this cupboard does not dismantle, so please check access carefully. Height: 78", width: 33.5", depth: 20"
