Description

A magnificent Georgian cheval mirror in Cuban mahogany that dates to around 1830. In original unrestored condition with a natural brown waxed finish and its' original patina. It has a turned bobbin frame with splayed feet with brass claw castors and girandole articulated candle sconces. Has its' original mercury mirror plate in excellent condition except for a small hairline crack approximately 10mm long on the bottom left hand side. The back is the original mahogany frame. Measures 64 inches high, 26 inches wide and 22 inches deep. A really attractive mirror in excellent condition that would look outstanding in a period home.
