Description

A charming oil on artist board portrait of a gentleman. The man is pictured half-length wearing a red velvet waistcoat and black suit. The quality of the work is very good and will have been by a professional portraitist. The work has had some cleaning and slight restoration over the years but is in overall good condition. The good quality gilt frame is not the original but is of the period and retains its original gilding. The whole has a great period look and is ready to hang. C.1840. Overall sizes in inches including frame: 15 ¼ by 17 1/2
