Description

A charming miniature longcase clock with a Delft pottery case. The case is beautifully modelled in miniature as a longcase clock and decorated in typical Delft style in blue and white. The central section of the clock has a charming eighteenth century style scene with figures. There is copious floral decoration and a typical Dutch scene to the hood of the clock. The case is in excellent condition with no damage at all. The clock movement is all there but not working, it needs servicing. The dial and hands are all there but there is some chipping to the dial winding hole. A charming and unusual piece of Delft with a great decorative impact. C.1880. Overall sizes in inches: 16 ½ high 5 wide 3 ½ deep
