Description

A magnificent large-size Soumak carpet from circa 1880 and woven in the region of Daghestan or Kuba, in the eastern Caucasus. The beautiful, saturated natural madder-red ground contains three large indigo-blue lozenges with the depiction of human figures on their own and some riding horses. The carpet is in amazing condition bar two small nicks in one of the borders, easily repairable. This is a wonderful and highly collectible Soumak carpet which would look amazing on a wood floor. Size: 4.10m x 2.35m (13' 6" x 7' 9").
