Description

A fabulous and very collectable brooch by the leading Copenhagen jeweller 'Anton Michelsen' 1809 - 1877, who started his silversmith business in 1841 and became the leading Danish jeweller to the royal family at that time. The silver brooch is in the form of a heart, intertwined with mistletoe which has been enamelled a lovely deep green colour. On the back are the marks for Anton Michelsen along with 'Sterling Denmark'. There is a good fastening pin which works well.   &nbsp; Condition: In super condition.   &nbsp; Period: Victorian   &nbsp; Measurements: Height: 3 cm   Width: 3 cm   Depth: 8. mm   Weight: 5.7 grams Weights and measurements are approximate.   &nbsp; 38052
