Description

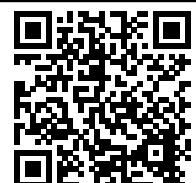

A truly beautiful antique silver & enamel pill box very finely decorated with gold flowers & forget-me-nots hallmarked Chester 1910. The body of the box is a plain polished silver, and the crowning glory is the most exquisitely decorated lid. The background is in shimmering white guilloche enamel upon which sits a central circle of blue forget-me-nots and a ring of gold flowers and stars. The fine detailing is absolutely exquisite. Inside the pill box a lemony gilt interior adds another touch of rich colour. The lift off lid fits snugly when twisted into position and the box is a very good heavy gauge of silver, lovely and sturdy. Condition: The overall condition is extremely good, the second part of the makers mark is worn but appears to be Cornelius Desormeaux Saunders & James Francis Hollings Shepherd. There is some very slight surface scratching to the lid that is difficult to see; it is commensurate with the age of this antique item and mentioned only for accuracy. Hallmarked as silver with marks for the Chester Assay Office 1910. It is fully hallmarked to the side with more part hallmarks to the lid, rim & base. Measurements: Diameter o...
