Description

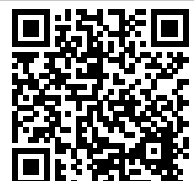

A beautiful Art Deco leather scallop back stool, made in England and dating from the 1920-30's. This is of superb quality, it is sturdy, well sprung in the seat, it is very comfortable and supportive. It is a perfect size to be used for a dressing table, or even as a desk chair. This sits on beautiful cabriole legs, the back has a lovely scalloped shape design. We have had the leather revived and hand coloured to a gorgeous deep brown colour, the legs have also been re-polished. This is in excellent condition throughout.
