Description

Superb bedroom / nursing chair with walnut frame from the fantastic Victorian era. The chair has a moulded frame with attractive carved details to top, splay legs to the back and carved tapering legs to the front on original castors. The seat and backrest are covered in a fabulous floral needlepoint tapestry with beadwork highlights with plain fabric to the back. Some of the braiding shows some wear (shown in photos) however this could easily be replaced. The walnut frame displays good colouring and a desirable aged patina making this an attractive and striking chair which will enhance any room. Seat height 40cm
