Description

A rare Japanese antique solid sterling silver medicine spoon. It is hallmarked for STERLING 950 standard along with the makers mark Asahi. I would date it to c1920. It has have been superbly made and is in super condition being free from dings slits and repairs. It measures approx. 5 inches (12.6cm) long by over 1 inch (2.8cm) wide and weighs 26 grams. A very unusual and interesting item.
