Description

Handsome Victorian bookcase made from solid oak with fantastic pollard oak veneers and original leather dust covers. This bookcase splits into two sections for easy transportation in and around the home/ office. The top section has a flared carved cornice which sits above two glazed doors. The doors open to a fully adjustable shelved interior which will accommodate any size of book or treasure you wish to display. The base has two drawers with decorative brass handles and a two door cupboard. All doors are lockable (keys supplied). Like all antique furniture there are some imperfections however these only enhance the charm of this handsome bookcase.
