Description

A soft coloured and perfect condition old Heriz rug from North-West Persia, dating from around 1930. A beautiful and decorative 90 year old rug ideal for an entrance hall or sitting in front of a fire in a living room. A lovely soft dense wool pile, and pale dyes too, well drawn and finely woven. We have professionally cleaned this rug and it is ready to be used on the floor. Purchase this old Heriz rug online and we shall safely deliver it to your home, with our excellent anti-slip rug underlay which is included in the price. Or contact us to view it at our barn showroom in Crondall, Surrey or to request further images. If you are not completely satisfied with this antique rug we shall of course refund you in full once the rug is returned to us. Free Shipping throughout the UK and we use a well-respected International Shipper for Europe and Overseas, as we have shipped carpets to Hong Kong and Australia in the past. Members of The British Antique Dealers Association (BADA) and LAPADA since 2008. Adhering to their strict guidelines and our carpets and rugs are independently vetted at their antique and art fairs
