Description

A Circa 1930 period, set of six upholstered, solid English oak framed, dining chairs and carver armchair. The set consists of 5 chairs and one carver armchair. These chairs in C17th Jacobean taste, constructed entirely from high quality solid oak, feature barley-twists throughout, all of which are mirrored from left to right side. The backs with wavy splats flanking a central straight splat, barley twist stiles, topped with finials. Drop in seats covered in salmon coloured cotton fabric. The carver with open arms. All raised on barley-twist front legs with with block and ball feet, and splayed rear legs. Supported by H-stretchers. All the chairs have the original retailer/cabinet maker labels, "Denby & Spinks, House Furnishers, Leeds". A quality set of handsome chairs. Only minor marks and signs of use to the frames. Good colour and polish, and in good overall condition. Ready for use. Dimensions: These chairs measure approximately 107 cm (42") tall, 45.5 cm (18") wide, and 49 cm (19.25") deep. The seat height is approximately 48.5 cm (19"). The carver measures approximately 116 cm (45.75") tall, 57.5 cm (22.75") wide, and 59.5 cm (23.5") deep. The seat height is appr...
