Description

This early 20th century swag chandelier has a decorated brass plate to the top where the swags and prisms hang from. It is held together by a moulded brass frame to the centre of the chandelier. This chandelier has four bulb holders which means it is uplit and downlit. There is a pole running down the centre of the chandelier for rigidity. It is finished with a brass plate at the bottom to gather the underneath swags and prisms together. The ceiling rose measures 6cm st 3148
