Description

A beautiful Victorian silver and enamel vesta case made by the famous William Hare Hasler of Birmingham in 1899. The enamel is in good condition and there are no chips just surface scratches. The vesta snaps shut and the top fits well. It has a suspension loop and a full set of hallmarks on the inner lip of the base. There are owner's initials on the back and a striker on the base. A great collectors piece. WEIGHT; 29 grams approx. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, over the phone, PayPal or cleared cheque.
