Description

A Unique Early 18th Century Diminutive George I Figured Walnut Bachelors Table, Circa 1720-1730. The table is of very rare diminutive proportions raised on slender straight legs with what is known as lappet carved knees, terminating on pad feet. The figured walnut top is cross-banded and feather-banded. Fitted with the original hinges opening to a conforming surface. It should be noted that this table is extremely rare and has rich patinated surfaces throughout.
