

SA1036595

Painted Late 18th Century Swedish Wall Cabinet dated 1778

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1036595*Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Description

A charming 18th century wall hanging cabinet, Swedish, dated 1779 and with the initials L.O. Original painted finish in a soft green with orange highlights and with decorative foliate panel to door and the same pattern painted to the cornice and plinth. . The door with original lock, hinges and iron key opens smoothly and there is a fixed original shelf inside the cupboard. Below this a single drawer with original iron ring handle. . The cupboard peg jointed throughout including the fixings of the oak boarded back. . Small chips and losses, a section of the left hand side plinth depleted. A few old worm holes, treated and long since dead. . Designed to be wall hung, with some fixings for this purpose on the back board. . A practical and very pretty early wall cupboard. Delightful! . . Dimensions are: . 23.5 inches wide, 11.5 inches deep and 25 inches high. . For metric please multiply by 2.5

Seller Details

Webberley Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07765 233266

International Tel: +44 7765 233266