Description

A thoroughly delightful pair of antique French Empire brass inlaid flame mahogany bedside cabinets, circa 1830 in date. They are freestanding and finished on all four sides. They each feature bombe' sides and shaped rectangular mottled Rouge de Rance marble tops with three quarter brass galleries above oak lined drawers, cupboard doors and raised on turned reeded legs that terminate in a platform base raised on ball feet. Add an elegant touch to your home with these lovely bedside chests. Condition: In really excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned, polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation. Dimensions in cm: Height 82 cm x Width 46 cm x Depth 37 cm. Dimensions in inches: Height 2 foot, 8 inches x Width 1 foot, 6 inches x Depth 1 foot, 3 inches. Rouge de Rance is a red marble from the town of Rance in the province of Hainaut Belgium. The red "marble" of Rance was very popular as a prestigious building material for decorative use. Although it has been exploited since Roman Antiquity it became most renowned since the 17th century because of its prolific use in the Royal Chateau of Versailles built for the French ki...
