Description

These are a great looking pair of early 20th century French bed side tables with very unusual and striking purple marble top. These are neat and offer an elegant storage solution. These also have pull out sides that is a nice touch. Great overall condition with the only fault being a small nick out of the boarder of one table. The thin cabriole legs with the kidney shaped lower shelves really do add a lot to the design. Height 70cm Width 34cm Depth 28cm
