Description

A stunning and quite unusual pair of antique Art Nouveau brass wall mounting candelabra. They were made in England, and they date from around the 1890-1900 period. They depict large water lily leaves, each has a small frog in the top corner hunting a fly. The candelabra are attached by hooks and can easily be removed. Each has two hanging hooks at the back, so they are easily mountable. There is also a serial number imprinted at the bottom edge of one. The condition is excellent for their age, with no damage and a gorgeous overall patina. Width – 14 inches , 36 cm Depth – 7 inches , 18 cm Height – 23 inches , 58 cm
