Description

This beautiful Minton Parian figurine candlestick is a super piece with great detail. The Parian ware figure has a winged cherub nestled in the folds of her robe holding a quiver. She sits atop a glazed porcelain column with turquoise and gold glazed detail raised on rococo style feet and is holding a matching glazed and gilded candle sconce above. The base has had one foot restored and has an historic hairline to another as photographed. This has the Minton factory mark on the glazed base underside. The piece is a good size with much appeal at 43 cms in height and 18 cms in diameter overall. UK packing and insured delivery is £20
