Description

A very rare example, with a unique provenance, the arched top carved "Tempest Fugit" with finials over an arched dial, with strike, silent, and Westminster and Whittington chimes subsidiary dials. The foliate central dial with a subsidiary second dial within a silver chapter ring with applied Arabic numerals. The eight day movement striking on eight rods, giving a lovely mellow chime with the hours, striking on a massive coiled gong. The case is most decorative and unique and there's an inscription see the image below.
