Description

Large French Gothic Library Throne Chairs This beautiful pair of wide carved chairs each have a different carved face in the back rail, acanthus leaf carved arm rests and a sturdy H stretcher at the floor. They have attractive silk upholstery with brass studs, they date from around 1870, they are made in Walnut and have a decorative carved top rail. The Chairs and the upholstery are in good sound condition, a little of the filigree decoration at the top of each chair back is slightly damaged. So we have a pair of very good quality and comfortable Walnut Library chairs. The chair backs are 41" high, the front is 26" wide, 22" deep JF23

Internal Ref: JF23
