Description

A fine Art Deco Maurice Adams dining room table and six chairs. In walnut with well designed slanted legs to the table with banding to each of the four table top corners. The matching chairs in walnut and the seats just reupholstered in soft cream leather. All our furniture is professionally polished and restored where necessary. Our restorer has over 40 years of furniture restoration experience including 15 years living at Windsor Castle whilst restoring furniture for the Royal household, so comes highly recommended. Maurice Adams saw himself as the natural successor to the great furniture makers of the eighteenth century and had ambitious plans for 20th-century British interior design. All Adams's furniture was made by hand in Gloucester and displayed in Adams's showroom in Portman Square, London. Emphasis on glossy veneers is characteristic of much of Adams's work. The designer praised the marble-like effect of veneers and their ability to exploit the 'natural beauty' of figured woods. The V&A have furniture from Maurice Adam's in their collection. Table.
