Description

A superb Arts and Crafts style chandelier dating from the early 20th Century. It is made of brass with three scrolling arms. The central crown is adorned with three blue/green ruskin cabochons in brass mounts. It has its three original glass shades with Art Nouveau style decoration to match the design of the ruskins. It is in good condition for its age. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and displays beautifully. There are signs of age and use, some tarnishing and some minor dinks and surface marks but no major damages or anything detrimental. The glass shades are all in good order. It is in working order and has been wired to modern standards to take standard bayonet bulbs. Hanging height is obviously restricted by the current length of wire but this could be lengthened if necessary. We would always recommend that the lights are checked and installed by a professional electrician. Approximate Measurements: Height : 16" (41cm) to top of light Hanging Height : 25" (63cm) to top of wire / chain The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
