Description

Edwardian walnut cheval mirror This Edwardian walnut cheval mirror was made circa 1910. This Edwardian walnut cheval mirror is of a good size, this allows you to view your outfits easily. The mirror with the bevelled edge has a walnut frame with the fabulous, shaped top of the design you would find on the finest Georgian dressing mirrors. It is supported on the stand that has the cabriole legs, each with the fine carving and the delicate swirl to each side. The tapering mirror supports have a turned finial at the top. There is a bar at the bottom that joins the 2 uprights, and this has a feature panel of burr walnut. You can adjust the mirror to different angles according to your requirements. 64cms wide 25ins 168cms high 66ins 51cms deep 20ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible.
