Description

A very good quality George IV antique waterfall bookcase cabinet made from tropical Goncalo Alves wood with lovely figuring throughout which has a rosewood appearance to it. This functional piece of furniture has graduating shelves with carved 'c' scroll design, cupboard doors to the base and two drawers with turned wooden knobs. Opening the cupboard doors reveals more storage space with another four drawers each with brass military handles and shelving space to the other side. The bookcase cabinet has a shaped and carved pediment to the top, reeded moulding and stands on turned bun feet. The door and the drawers retain their original brass locks which also com with a working key. The internal drawers are mahogany and pine lined and the two base drawers are mahogany lined. This bookcase is attributed to Gillows of Lancaster. Height - 130 cm (51 inches) Width - 93 cm (36 ½ inches) Depth - 33 cm (12 ¾ inches) Circa - 1825
