Description

A stunning matched pair of antique French marble top bedside cabinets, dating from around the 1890-1900 period. They are of superb quality, predominantly burr walnut which has gorgeous grain patterns and colour tones, the doors also have amazing inlaid marquetry. There are high quality ormolu mounts, brass handles and brass feet caps. They have fantastic thick shaped marble tops that compliment the cupboards beautifully. We have had these stripped and re-polished to a very high standard, the condition is excellent. We might consider selling these separately, but it would be a shame, as they are so close to a pair, which most customers want.
