Description

An attractive and good quality 'Smoker's Bow' or 'Captain's' armchair dating from the late 19th century. It has a comfortable wide and deep elm seat with broad arms, turned spindles and turned legs joined by a double stretcher. It is approximately 31" (79cm) high and it is 26" (66cm) wide across the arms. The seat is approximately 18 1/2" (47cm) deep and 18" (46cm) high. It is in good condition for its age and displays well. It has developed a nice aged patina and is a strong and sturdy chair. The chair is not without a few small marks and signs of age and use and a few minor shrinkage splits but no major damages or anything detrimental. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
