Description

A large and very impressive pair of antique Swedish satin birch bedside cabinets. They were recently imported from Sweden, and date from around the 1900-1910 period. The satin birch grain patterns and colour tones are absolutely gorgeous, they sit on beautiful sabre shaped legs and are of very fine quality. One cabinet contains an internal bank of drawers, the other contains a shelf. We have had these stripped and re-polished to a very high standard, the condition is superb throughout.
