Longcase Moonroller Clock by TARLTON of Liverpool

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA103956*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A very majestic, 8 day longcase clock by Will. Tarlton of Liverpool and dating from C1790. The 8 day movement has just been fully overhauled and serviced by a registered member of The British Horological Institute, and carries a 12mth. guarantee. The painted arched dial has a moonroller dial and subsidiary seconds dial and date ring. The case is constructed of very fine flame mahogany with reeded quarter columns to the trunk and canted corners to the base. It stands on ogeed bracket feet. The hood has two inset blue glass panels embossed with 22ct gold scroll work. The clock retains its original french-polished finish and has a warm, rich, deep patina that only age can achieve. The clock strikes the hours on a bell and has a really nice theraputic tick. Liverpool made clocks are much sought after as they are regarded as amongst the finest quality clocks made in the Country. This clock will be delivered and installed free of charge anywhere within England or Wales and will be supplied with a full 12mths guarantee.
