Description

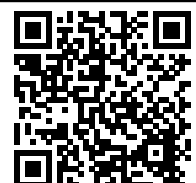

A large welsh oak dresser. The top has moulded cornice above an open rack back of three fitted shelves, each with an arrangement of small iron hooks. This sits above a base composed of two drawers each with two brass handles and backplates. The oak dresser is raised on turned front legs and straight rear legs. The under-tier pot board shelf serves as a support. Comes apart in two sections for ease of transport. Item Ref; M-5073 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 198cm / Width - 132cm / Depth - 41cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and scratches to the shelves, surface top and front. There is some splitting to the pot board surface top and to the base of the dresser, however the oak dresser remains structurally solid and sound. The two parts of the oak dresser should be fixed together with screws. A great example of an antique 19th century oak dresser. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection.
