Description

A charming antique 19th century oak dresser base. The oak dresser base has a rectangular moulded cornice surface top which sits above an arrangement of two drawers each with two brass handles and backplates. The oak dresser is raised on turned front legs and straight rear legs. The under-tier pot board shelf serves as a support. Item Ref; M-5073B . DIMENSIONS: Height – 78.5cm / Width - 126cm / Depth - 40.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks and stains to the surface top and legs. There is some splitting to the pot board surface top and to the base of the dresser, however the oak dresser remains structurally solid and sound. A lovely example of an antique 19th century oak dresser base. Our experienced carpenter meticulously inspects, repairs, and restores each item in our collection. This ensures that every piece you purchase from us is ready to be seamlessly incorporated into your home.
