Description

Adam style gilt mirror This elegant Adam style gilt mirror was made circa 1860. The bevelled mirror is oval shaped with the pleasing ribbons and swags adorning it. The gilt oval frame has a fine surmount with an anthemion to the centre with ribbons coming off each side, also having bellflower swags that sweep to join a pair of flaming torches to each side. Imagine how much this wonderful Antique gilt mirror will elevate your room, with its style and the reflection of light it will provide. A dramatic mirror like this example can only be a positive enhancement to your home. It has been restored to its former glory by our specialist who has worked on the Royal collection, including Windsor Castle. 99cms wide 39ins 66cms high 26ins 3cms deep 1 1/4ins All Measurements are as accurate as possible.
