Description

Beautiful Georgian Mahogany & inlaid antique Longcase Grandfather clock in good condition and dating to around 1800-1810. The clock with its excellent arched dial, complete with sweep centre seconds, elegant Hour Numerals, and centre sweep calendar hand, stunning condition having been fully restored. The arch with the revolving moon dial beneath the 29 1/2 day lunar calendar. 8 day, 4 pillar rack & snail striking movement with Deadbeat escapement, fully cleaned & serviced. Signed Edward Glase Bridgnorth, the clock striking the hours on a bell. Beautiful Swan neck pediment hood with reeded pillars with Brass capitals. Measuring just under 90 inches in height (228 cm), lovely and impressive but not overpowering proportions. Working lock and key to the shaped and inlaid case door. Beautifully inlaid base panel, and standing on petite Ogee Bracket feet to the front. An excellent quality and rare Georgian "4 Hand" Longcase clock. More photo's and information on request. Some historic repaired splits to the sides, usual age related nicks and dings. Worldwide door to door shipping available, please email your address for a delivery/shipping quote.
