Description

A second half 19thc watercolour scene of a loch or lake surrounded by hills by well known Victorian era landscape artist William Henry Earp (1831-1914). This is a grand panoramic scene of a loch or lake, in Scotland or Ireland. The sweeping landscape in a gentle misty pastel range of watercolour is typical of Earp's style. It is in excellent condition. It is signed at bottom left. It is framed in a good quality antique gilt frame. Image dimensions : 52cm wide 23cm high.
